

The Mark Drama actor testimony

Being a part of the cast for the Mark drama has rocked me deeply to the core of my being and through it, God has reached down once again to claim me as His own.

"The night after our dress rehearsal I dreamt I held a newborn child, and watched helplessly as it passed away in my arms. And in those crushing moments, I felt God's anguish as he watched His Beloved Son perish on the cross and I woke weeping."

I felt God's hand on my soul as He reawakened the Holy Spirit that dwelt within but which great suffering had caused me to bury these past 7 years.

I went to the morning Good Friday service to repent and to affirm to God and myself that I had heard His call again and wept throughout the entire service, neither being capable of, nor wanting to stop my tears.

I believe He reached out and reclaimed me as His child, reminding me that even when we are not holding on to Him, He is holding onto us.
